TERMS OF ADMISSION.

Every person applying for admission into the Seminary, must produce satisfactory written testimonials that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some regular church; and that he has passed through a regular course of academic study; or, wanting this, he must submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature usually taught in such a course.

When a student has been received under the care of a Presbytery, and has passed his examination on the studies usually pursued in College with approbation, a certificate from the Presbytery declaring this fact is received as sufficient to answer every requisition in regard to testimonials.

When a student who has been connected with any Theological Seminary seeks admission into this, he must produce testimonials of his good standing, and regular dismission, before he can be received.

A knowledge of Hebrew is not essential to students entering the Junior Class, inasmuch as the rudiments of this language form part of the regular course of instruction given in the first year. But a previous acquaintance with at least the written character would be of great service to beginners.

COURSE OF STUDY.

First Year.

Old Testament Literature: General Introduction; Hebrew (Green's Grammar and Chrestomathy). New Testament Literature: General Introduction; Special Introduction to the Gospels; Exegesis of selected Epistles of Paul. Sacred Geography and Antiquities. Biblical History. Comparative History of Religions. Relations of Philosophy and Science to the Christian Religion: Theism; Theological Encyclopædia. Ecclesiastical Theology: Homiletical exercises; Elocution.

Second Year.

Old Testament: Hebrew; Special Introduction to the Poetical Books; Special Introduction to the Historical Books. New Testament: Life of Christ and Exegesis of the Gospels. Didactic Theology (Theology Proper, Anthropology begun). Church History. Relations of Philosophy and Science to the Christian Religion. Government and Discipline of the Church: Homiletics; Criticism of Sermons; Elocution.

Third Year.

Old Testament: Hebrew; Special Introduction to the Prophets; Biblical Theology (Elective). New Testament: Acts of the Apostles; Special Introduction to the Epistles; Biblical Theology (Elective). Didactic Theology (Anthropology, Soteriology, Eschatology). Church History. Relations of Philosophy and Science to the Christian Religion. Christian Ethics. Pastoral Care; Ordinances of Worship. Homiletics: Analysis of Texts; Homiletical Criticisms; Elocution.

The regular course is completed in three years; but every facility is afforded to such as desire to remain for a longer period with a view to the further prosecution of their studies; and the following post-graduate course has been added to the instructions of the Seminary.

Fourth Year.

Old Testament: Messianic Prophecies; Comparative Semitic Philology. New Testament: Special Introduction and Exegesis continued; Greek Philology with a particular consideration of the Hellenistic dialect. Church History: existing Denominations. Polemic Theology. Ecclesiology. Ecclesiastical Law and Discipline; Preaching.

Lectures and Recitations.

The Junior Class has five weekly exercises in Hebrew; two in Introduction to the Old Testament and Archæology; one in Introduction to the New Testament; two in the Exegesis of Paul's Epistles; one in Biblical History; two in the Relations of Philosophy and Science to the Christian Religion; one in Homiletics; and one in Elocution.

The Middle Class has three weekly exercises in Church History; three in Didactic Theology; two in Old Testament Literature; one in the Relations of Philosophy and Science to the Christian Religion; two in the Life of Christ and Exegesis of the Gospels; two in Homiletics; and one in Elocution.

The Senior Class has three weekly exercises in Didactic Theology; one in Christian Ethics; one in the Relations of Philosophy and Science to the Christian Religion; one in Elocution; and two in each of the other departments.

The Several Departments of Instruction.

In order to convey a clearer idea of what is actually taught in the Seminary, the following more explicit statements are made respecting the instruction here given.

Introduction to the Scriptures.

General Introduction to the Old and the New Testament embraces the subjects of the Canon, the Original Languages of Scripture, Ancient Manuscripts and Versions, Sacred Criticism, and the History and Principles of Scripture Interpretation.

Special Introduction embraces an account of each book severally, its authorship, integrity, design, and structure, together with a general statement of its contents, and a more particular examination of the most interesting and important questions relating to its criticism and interpretation. The course is intended to include at least a general survey of every book in the Bible.

Hebrew.

Hebrew is taught throughout the course. But the grammatical study of the language as such is confined mainly to the first year, in which a larger portion of time is devoted to it than to any other single branch. The Junior Class is practised not simply in translation and parsing, but in the derivation of words and the comparison of synonyms, and in converting English into Hebrew. A beginning is also made the first year in the application of the knowledge of the language to the work of exposition, which is carried out more fully in the subsequent years of the course.

The Old Testament.

A general and comprehensive survey is presented of the various books of the Old Testament, in their individual plan and contents, and in their relations to one another, and to the general scheme of which they form a part. And the most important questions in criticism and exegesis that arise in each are considered, with a special reference to the gradual unfolding of revealed truth, the preparation for the coming of Christ, and the fuller disclosures of the New Testament. Particular attention is paid to the interpretation of typical facts and institutions, and to tracing the progressive scheme of prophecy. The Middle Class is also engaged in the more detailed study of the Book of Psalms, and the Senior Class in that of Isaiah.

The New Testament.

In the study of the New Testament an acquaintance with ordinary Greek is assumed; but careful attention is paid to the peculiarities of the Hellenistic dialect, particularly as employed by the New Testament writers. The exegesis of the New Testament is begun with the Junior Class by the study of the Epistles of Paul. The Life of Christ is exhibited in its several periods, with a careful analysis of the different Gospels, their mutual relations, their individual characteristics, and the harmony of their respective narratives. The Acts of the Apostles is studied both exegetically and topically, with prominent reference to the life and labors of the Apostle Paul, and the early planting of the Christian Church. Special Introductions to the various Epistles are inserted in their proper chronological place.

Theology.

Systematic Theology is begun in the Middle year, and completed in the Senior year. The doctrines of Theology are presented didactically, historically, and polemically. The order of topics pursued is: The nature, forms, and sources of Theology; the being of God; His nature and attributes; the Trinity; the Divinity of Christ; the Holy Spirit; the decrees of God; creation; providence; miracles; the origin, nature, and primitive state of man; the covenant with Adam; the fall; sin; imputation; original sin; inability; the covenant of grace; the person of Christ; His offices; the nature, necessity, perfection, and extent of the atonement; His kingdom; His humiliation and exaltation; vocation; regeneration; faith; justification; sanctification; the law of God; the sacraments; eschatology.

Biblical and Ecclesiastical History.

The Junior Class is instructed in Old Testament History as it stands related to the Christian Dispensation, and the general history of the world before Christ.

The study of Church History is pursued with the Middle Class from the founding of the Christian Church to the period of the Reformation. The Seniors are occupied with the period following the Reformation and extending to the present time, including the history of the separate church organizations in Europe, America, and the East.

The whole course is conducted by lecture and recitation upon the subject of the lecture, with constant reference to original authorities and the best books for collateral reading. Special attention is given throughout to the historical order of revelation and development of doctrine, to Christian life, and the relations of the Church to the world.

Ecclesiastical, Homiletical, and Pastoral Theology.

The study of Ecclesiastical Theology is begun in the Junior Year. The method of instruction is by Lectures. The course includes: the true idea of the Church; the organization of the Church; the Head of the Church; the claim of Papal Supremacy; Officers of the Church; Apostolical Succession; Office of the Ministry; Ruling Elders, etc.

The study of Homiletics is begun with the Middle Class in a course of Lectures, including the choice of Texts; the origination of thought; collection of material; assimilation; the drawing of a Theme; the analysis of Texts with practical exercises in Divisions; the preparation of Discourses; and homiletical criticisms of Sermons delivered in the presence of a Professor. The study of Church Government is also continued in the Middle Year by Lectures and Textbook. Subjects: Church Members, their rights, duties, privileges; Church Courts, their warrant, gradation, and power; Church Discipline in its forms and processes.

The Senior Class is instructed in Pastoral Theology both by Lecture and Textbook. The study of Homiletics is continued in the Senior Year by Lectures upon Introductions; the treatment of the different heads of a discourse; illustrations in preaching, etc.

Christian Ethics.

This course delivered to the Senior Class treats of Biblical Ethics, studied both constructively and with reference to popular and scientific difficulties; of the Apologetic argument drawn from the moral character and results of Christianity; and of the relations of Christianity to civilization and Social Science. Owing to Dr. Aiken's absence by reason of ill-health, this course of lectures will not be delivered during the present year.

The Relations of Philosophy and Science to the Christian Religion.

The work of this chair will embrace the following subjects: Theological Encyclopædia; the Philosophy of Belief, including the theory of knowledge, tests of truth, canons of evidence, and the bearing of these topics upon current religious thought; the Philosophy of Religion; Theism in its historical, constructive, and critical aspects, including the anti-theistic theories; and Fundamental Ethics, with special reference to recent discussions.

The lectures in this department during the present session are devoted to Theism and Theological Encyclopædia. Other courses will be added from year to year.

Special Lectures.

The foundation created by L. P. Stone, Esq., provides for an annual course of lectures upon some topic kindred to Theological studies.

The lecturer for the present year is the Rev. Daniel S. Gregory, D.D., President of Lake Forest University, whose subject is "The Test of Philosophic Systems."

Rhetorical Exercises in Sermonizing.

Dr. Patton presides at the weekly speaking of the Junior and Middle Classes, each member of which is, in his turn, expected to deliver original discourses, memoriter.

The weekly preaching of the Senior Class is under the direction of Dr. Paxton, who also has exercises with the class in analysis of texts, in writing sermons, and in criticisms on sermons.

Mr. Henry W. Smith, the instructor in Elocution, is in constant attendance throughout the session, and gives a thorough course of teaching in this department, meeting the students both singly and in classes, and combining a careful discussion of principles with abundant and varied vocal exercises.

Every student is required, prior to graduation, to exhibit to the Professor of Homiletical Instruction two lectures and four popular sermons, which shall be approved by him.

Optional Studies.

Hebrew is the only Oriental language which is taught in the regular course; but such students as desire it may be instructed in Chaldee, Syriac, or Arabic.

The study of the Biblical Theology of the Old and New Testaments has been added to the Seminary course, but for the present is an elective study for Middle, Senior, and Graduate students.

Private classes may also be formed for classical reading, Biblical exegesis, or other subjects collateral to the course.

On application to the Professors of the College, students can have the privilege of attending lectures in that institution.

Instructions in the French and German languages can be obtained from competent teachers at the student's expense.

Hebrew Fellowship

The George S. Green fellowship, yielding $600 in quarterly payments, is offered to that member of the graduating class or resident graduate pursuing studies to an extent deemed satisfactory by the faculty, who shall stand highest in a special examination to be held in April upon a specified portion of Hebrew, and who shall in addition prepare the best thesis on a specified subject, to be presented on or before the first day of April.

The holder of this fellowship will be expected to spend at least one year in Old Testament study under the direction of the faculty either in Princeton or in some approved foreign university.

No student can receive this fellowship, who has not spent at least two years in this Seminary, nor unless he passes a satisfactory examination on all the studies of the regular course, nor unless his specified examination and thesis are decidedly meritorious.

The examination for this fellowship this year will be upon the Hebrew of the Senior year, together with the book of Genesis: and the subject for the thesis is The Composition of the book of Genesis.

The examination next year will be upon the Hebrew of the Senior year, together with the book of Leviticus; and the subject for the thesis is The Mosaic Origin of the Pentateuchal Codes.

Biblical Prizes.

The prizes instituted in 1870 by Mr. Robert Carter and Mr. Charles Scribner for excellence in Biblical studies have again been renewed.

Messrs. Robert Carter & Bros. will present $50 worth of their publications to that member of the Senior or Middle Class who shall prepare the best thesis on an assigned subject in Old Testament literature or exegesis, and submit it to the Professor of the department on or before April 1st. And the second and third in merit will each be presented with $10 worth of their publications.

Messrs. Charles Scribner's Sons make a like offer of their publications for a thesis in New Testament literature and exegesis.

The themes assigned for the present Seminary year are:

In the Old Testament: The genuineness of the titles of the Psalms.

In the New Testament: The bearing of our Lord's use of the Books of the Old Testament upon their Authorship and Inspiration.

Religious Exercises.

Daily prayers, which every student is expected to attend, are conducted in the morning by members of the Senior Class, and in the evening by the Professors.

On Sabbath mornings the Professors preach in rotation in the Seminary Chapel. In the afternoon a conference is held in the oratory, at which the Professors conduct the discourse on a subject previously announced, and the students conduct the devotional exercises.

Missionary meetings are held every Sabbath evening among the students. The Concert of Prayer on the first Monday of each month is under the direction of the Professors.

Various other meetings for devotion or mutual exhortation are maintained either by the students as a body, or by each class separately, by the graduates of the several colleges, etc.

Abundant opportunities for active usefulness and observation of pastoral life are afforded in Princeton and its vicinity. A large proportion of the students regularly engage in the conduct of religious meetings, in Sabbath-School instruction, and in other kinds of christian work.

Library.

The library has been removed to the new and elegant edifice recently erected for it by the late James Lennox, LL.D., of New York. The library now contains about 41,000 bound volumes, chiefly theological, including, in addition to many rare and costly works, the large and unique collection of pamphlets presented by the Rev. Dr. Sprague, the libraries of Drs. Ashbel Green, John M. Krebs, John Breckinridge, etc., and the valuable library of Dr. Addison Alexander, the gift of Messrs. R. L. and A. Stuart; also a remarkably full collection of works on the Baptist controversy embracing over 2000 volumes and 3000 pamphlets, gathered and presented by the late Mr. Samuel Agnew, of Philadelphia. The library has, from the generosity of Messrs. R. L and A. Stuart, a fund of ten thousand dollars, and from the estate of the late John C. Green, Esq., an additional fund of twenty-five thousand dollars, whose annual proceeds are devoted to its maintenance and increase. It is open three hours every weekday for reading and consultation, and for drawing books. Text-books may be kept out during the entire term.

Students are also entitled to the free use of the Library of the College.

The reading-room is well supplied with the leading newspapers and periodicals. It is open to all the students.

Stuart Hall.

This admirable structure affords the most ample and complete accommodations, in the way of lecture-rooms and apartments devoted to other public uses of the institution.

Rooms, Etc.

The commodious buildings of the Seminary, which have recently been thoroughly renovated, afford ample accommodations for students. The rooms, both in the original edifice and in Brown Hall, are furnished with a bed, bedstead, bureau, washstand, chairs, table, bookcase, and clothes-press. Whatever may be needed or desired beyond this must be supplied by the students themselves.

Expenses.

There is no charge for tuition or room-rent. The only fees required of students are $10 for the general expense fund, to pay the cost of warming and lighting the public rooms, the attendance of servants, etc., and $2 for the use of the library and reading room.

Board is furnished at the refectory for $3.00 per week; in clubs about the same; in private families from $3 to $5.

Fuel costs from $8 to $15 per annum; and washing $1.50 per month. Total of necessary expenses for the Seminary year, from $175 to $200.

Books can be bought at a liberal discount, and some class-books are provided in the library.

Gas-light may be had in the Seminary at the option of the student.

Reports to Presbyteries.

Annual reports are sent to Presbyteries of the attendance of the students under their care upon the exercises of the Seminary.

Examination.

The next annual examination will begin on Monday, May 5th, and be continued until the following Monday. During the first four days it is conducted in writing; during the last three it is oral, and is in the presence of the committee appointed by the Board of Directors, to whose scrutiny the results of the written examination are likewise subjected.

The Committee of Examination for the present session will meet at Stuart Hall on Thursday, May 8th, at 4 P.M.: it consists of—Principals: John Maclean, D.D., LL.D., William M. Paxton, D.D., LL.D., James McCosh, D.D., LL.D., Henry J. Van Dyke, D.D., Ebenezer Erskine, D.D., Robert Russell Booth, D.D., Levi P. Stone, Esq., Latimer Bailey, Esq., and William A. Wheelock, Esq.; Alternates: William D. Snodgrass, D.D., Robert Hamill, D.D., Joseph T. Smith, D.D., Abraham Gosman, D D., James O. Murray, D.D., Everard Kempshall, D.D., Rev. George T. Purves, Robert Carter, Esq., Hon. John K. Findlay.

The examination is public, and the presence of visitors, particularly from Presbyteries having students under their care, will be welcomed.

Students who are absent from the examination of their class, or who fail to pass this test in a satisfactory manner, must submit to an examination with the corresponding class in a subsequent year.

The Academical Year.

Opens on the third Thursday of September, and closes on the second Wednesday of May.

The Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors will be held on Tuesday, May 13th, at 11 A.M.

The usual certificates will be conferred on the next graduating class on Wednesday, May 14th, in the presence of the Board of Directors, when the students will be dismissed with an address by the Rev. John Maclean, D.D., LL.D., or his alternate.

The annual sermon, at the close of the session, will be preached by the Rev. Ebenezer Erskine, D.D., or in case of his absence by the Rev. Joseph T. Smith, D.D., his alternate.

The address before the Theological Society will be delivered in the evening of the second Sabbath of April.

Vacation.

The long summer vacation presents a suitable opportunity for engaging in teaching, or in other remunerative occupations. Students are particularly encouraged to spend their vacation in practical Christian work, under the direction or with the approbation of their pastors or Presbyteries. This will furnish a most important supplement to the scholastic training of the Seminary, affording an experience and a familiarity with the active duties of the ministry, which will be invaluable as a part of their preparation for the sacred office.

Students are not advised to engage in teaching or in other distracting occupations during term time, with a view to self-support. This is found to interfere seriously with their attention to study, and is rendered unnecessary by the aid which they may receive from the funds of the Seminary, from the Board of Education, and from the liberality of private benefactors.

Location of the Seminary.

The seclusion and quiet of a rural village is particularly favorable to academic occupation. It was chiefly for this reason and for the additional advantage of proximity to the College of New Jersey, that the General Assembly, after mature deliberation, selected Princeton as the site of the oldest Seminary of the Church.

It is in quick and easy communication with the neighboring cities of New York and Philadelphia, while yet it is sufficiently removed from them to be free from all distracting influences.

Gifts and Bequests to the Seminary.

The corporate name of the body in charge of the property of the Seminary is "The Trustees of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church." Gifts may, at the pleasure of donors, be directed to the Permanent Fund, which is for the support of the Professors; to the Education Fund, which is for the aid of needy students; to the Contingent Fund, which is for defraying the general expenses of the Institution, its buildings, grounds, etc.; to the Sustentation Fund, designed to diminish the expense of boarding; to the Library Fund, or to any other important object connected with the Seminary. The value of a scholarship is from $2500, which is the minimum, to $3000.

Alumni Association of the Seminary.

The Alumni Association of the Seminary will hold its annual meeting in the Seminary Chapel on Wednesday, May 14th, when the Annual Necrological Report will be presented, and free discussions will be held on prearranged topics. The Alumni will dine together in Stuart Hall.

The officers of the Association for the present year are as follows: President, Rev. Henry J. Van Dyke, D.D., of Brooklyn; Vice-President, Rev. Talbot W. Chambers, D.D., of New York; Secretary, Rev. William E. Schenck, D.D., of Philadelphia; Treasurer, Rev. William Harris, of Princeton, N. J. These with Rev. William Irvin, D.D., of Troy, N. Y., Rev. E. Kempshall, D.D., of Elizabeth, N. J., and Rev. Thomas Murphy, D.D., of Philadelphia, constitute the Executive Committee.

The Annual Necrological Record.

This publication, begun in 1875, and issued each year since that date, under the supervision of the Rev. Wm. E. Schenck, D.D., contains a brief biographical notice of each of the Alumni of the Seminary dying during the course of a given year. The Committee on Necrology, the Rev. William E. Schenck, D.D., and the Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., earnestly solicit early and full information respecting deceased Alumni.

The General Catalogue.

The last edition of the General Catalogue of the Seminary was published in 1881, was edited by the Rev. William E. Schenck, D.D., with the co-operation of the Librarian of the Seminary, and contains the record of each student of the Institution, so far as obtainable, from 1812 to 1881. Its price is 61 cents, postage included, and it can be had by addressing the Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., Princeton, N. J. Any facts tending to make the record complete will be welcome.
